INTRO: Em

VERSE ONE

(Em) D
I went down to Colorado, nothin' but a shadow
C D
Disappear like the mist; like a vapor, I won't be missed
Em D
Out in Tulsa there were no traces; just lots open spaces
C D
Reminded me of my soul, out here all alone

CHORUS

G D
You can hit the big city or drive down old dirt roads
Em C
Cross an ocean, climb a mountain, but no matter where you go
G D
The scenery can change, but if inside you're still the same
Em C
The grass may look greener, but if it ain't got no meaning
G D Em
It don't matter where you go; if you want change
(D) (staccato)
It's yourself that you're gonna have to get to know

VERSE TWO

Em D
I was out in Pennsylvania, ran into a stranger
C D
He said, "Why do I drink like this? It doesn't fill up the emptiness."
Em D
And then out in San Francisco, it's the same as in Chicago
C D (to chorus)
The streets are full of ghosts, like nobody seems to know
