VERSE ONE

E F#m
This all feels wrong - where have you gone
E F#m
There's so much loss - I miss you so much
C#m B A B
Maybe I do; maybe I don't
C#m B A B
Maybe I will; maybe I won't
C#m B A B
I say I'm fine, fine, fine
C#m B A B
But it's a lie, lie, lie caught in my throat

CHORUS

E A
I was fine yesterday
E A
Now it's gone, gone away
C#m B A B
I might never be the same
C#m B A B
But I'll be fine again someday
C#m
Unless someday
B A B
Someday, someday
C#m
Never comes

VERSE TWO

I see the smoke... my heart, it's burned up
On the ashes I choke... It's too high of cost
Like that old song says
It's a new dawn; it's a new day
But this mourning
Came with no warning and everything's changed

SOLO: C#m, B, A, B, C#m, B, A, B, E, A, E, A

BRIDGE

If I get through this song
It'll only be because
You live on in my memory
A kind of immortality
You'll never ever really be gone
